

StarVedia National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) Compliance Statement

July 17, 2023

Background - NDAA Section 889 Compliance

The National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), effective August 13, 2019 specifically Section 889, which prohibits the use of specific telecom and surveillance services, equipment and components manufactured by specific vendors due to potential risks to national security. It is crucial for StarVedia to comply with NDAA Section 889 to uphold the integrity and security of our products and supply chain.

Declaration of NDAA Section 889 Compliance - StarVedia Products

StarVedia declares full compliance with NDAA Section 889 for all our products. We have implemented rigorous evaluation processes and robust supply chain management practices to ensure compliance is upheld. The following product models have been thoroughly assessed and are confirmed to be in accordance with NDAA Section 889:

1. IC180LTE/IC180w
2. IC701
3. IC717
4. IC727FHD/IC727s
5. IC737FHD
6. IC502FHD
7. IC731FHD
8. IC722w/IC722w5M
9. IC733s
10. IC735
11. IC739
12. IC721w
13. D1
14. IC722z/IC731z/G1

Our unwavering commitment to national security and customer trust includes continuous monitoring of NDAA requirements to ensure compliance and uphold product integrity.

StarVedia Technology Inc.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jeffrey Wu". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Jeffrey Wu

CEO

StarVedia Technology Inc.
